Re: In re Randall's Island Family Golf Centers, Inc., et al. (the "Debtors")
Case Nos. 00-41065 through 00-41196

Dear Judge Bernstein:

We are the attorneys for the Debtors and write this letter with the consent of counsel for the landlords for the Debtors' facilities located in Carrollton, Texas and Moreno Valley, California, in connection with Trinity Mills' motion for relief from the stay.

As the Court is aware, the Debtors have sought to assume and assign certain leases to Klak Golf, LLC, including the lease for the Debtors' Moreno Valley facility. The landlord for the Moreno Valley facility, which has the same general partner as the landlord for the Trinity Mills facility, has objected to the assumption and assignment of Moreno Valley's lease to Klak. Although the Debtors and Trinity Mills were making progress in resolving the issues pertaining to Carrollton, the parties have determined to try to resolve the issues regarding both properties together.

The discovery deadline for Trinity Mills' lift stay motion is December 6, 2000. As the Court was previously advised, the parties have pursued discovery, including document production and the deposition of a representative of the Debtors. In order to allow the Debtors and the landlord to attempt to resolve all the issues with respect to both properties, without having to incur the expense involved in taking the remaining depositions, the Debtors and Trinity Mills request entry of the attached order, extending the discovery schedule. Although the Debtors and Trinity Mills have previously sought several extensions, the parties have agreed that if a settlement cannot
